1. Psychopathy and Sexual Deviance: How Do They Fit in a Comprehensive Risk Assessment?

Jan Looman, PhD, Forensic Behaviour Services, Kingston, Ontario, Canada

This workshop will discuss the intersection between psychopathy, sexual deviance, and the implications of this combination for risk assessment and treatment. Research indicates that those who present with both high psychopathy and sexual deviance tend to be at higher risk for sexual reoffence. However, beyond these general conclusions, there are a number of issues which must be addressed. First: how does one define sexual deviance? What are the key characteristics of deviant sexual interests? Is the DSM a valid tool of assessment or are other methods more appropriate? Second: the relationship between psychopathy and sexual recidivism will be explored, elaborating on the differences in the relationship based on offence type, as well as the specific facet of the psychopathy. Third: the specific relationship between the combination of psychopathy and sexual deviance will be discussed, including the extent to which this combination adds to the prediction of recidivism when a comprehensive risk measure, such as the Static-99R, is used.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach; Clinical

3. Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT): Theory and Application in the Clinical Setting

David Karan, MA, Oak Ridge Center, LLC, Apple Valley, MN

Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) has progressed into the ‘gold standard’ therapeutic approach for working with difficult client populations. This workshop will help clinicians gain a greater understanding of DBT, the client population that is best served by its teachings, and learn how to implement these concepts in practice. This training is intended for those who are new to DBT or those with limited experience implementing the modules of DBT within their practice.

Working with juveniles who have problematic and/or harmful sexual behaviors often present many challenges and it sometimes feels like the strategies we implement are not working. This work is isolating at times and questions about whether we are providing the most effective treatments often loom. In this workshop, the web of working with adolescents will be untangled, and presenters from a variety of backgrounds will illustrate their approaches, given their role and framework. A case conceptualization formula will be used to guide the process, and a multidisciplinary method with attention to the different needs of the juvenile will be addressed. Practical approaches to individual and group treatment, assessment, family work, and supervision will be provided during this training.

Panel members include a police investigator, forensic nurse examiner, prosecuting attorney, and victim services advocate. Using what we know, that those who offend, who experience consequences, and who engage successfully in treatment reoffend less than perpetrators of any other crime. ### Keynote Address

Helping Young People Develop Healthy Sexuality: A Toolkit for Professionals

Al Vernacchio, MEd, Friends' Central School, Wynnewood, PA

Young people receive unhealthy messages about sexuality every day. How can professionals who work with youth interrupt this stream of misinformation and help them engage with sexuality in a responsible, value-informed, and deliberate manner? This keynote will offer practical strategies for helping youth define healthy sexuality and practice the skills needed to achieve it.

Noon – 1:00 p.m. Lunch buffet – provided by MnATSA

1:00 – 2:30 p.m. Workshops – Select one workshop to attend from #16 through #23.

16. Creating a Community of Consent

Al Vernacchio, MEd, Friends' Central School, Wynnewood, PA

Every day, young people have the opportunity to negotiate consent as they go through their normal routine. Putting an arm around a friend, looking through another person's cell phone, or grabbing a fry off someone's plate at lunch are all situations where consent should apply yet often does not. This session will begin by focusing on these daily moments of consent and how they influence more significant situations where consent is absolutely essential, like romantic/sexual encounters. Strategies will be offered to create a "culture of consent" that makes it easier and more likely to engage in consent in both ordinary and extraordinary situations.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach; Clinical

17. Failing at Cultural Competence: Overcoming Shame

Contessa Johnson, MA, Steps for Change, Edina, MN

Acacia Gammage, MA, Guadalupe Alternative Programs, St. Paul, MN

Have you ever attended a cultural competency training and left feeling ashamed? We have! In our work with diverse populations, we have learned that shame is the most damaging thing to a therapeutic alliance and has no place in sessions. Instead of another cultural competency training chocked-full of common-sense solutions or the day ending with you crying in your car, we have found a way of bridging that gap through a combination of real-life experiences and research.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach & Practice skills; Clinical

18. Professional Boundaries – What Games Do Clients Play

Jessica Berghorst-Dansky, BA, Washington County Community Corrections, Stillwater, MN

Jeff Dansky, BA, Minnesota Department of Corrections, St. Paul, MN

Learn how to go about ensuring firm boundaries in your role, and how to avoid being set-up by the clients with whom you work. Because you may work in communities where you and your clients may run into each other outside of the office, or where you know the same people, maintaining professional boundaries can be a challenge. What's more, the community people with whom you work may not understand the boundaries that need to be maintained with clients. Therefore, you may find yourself intervening in some tricky situations involving others in the community.

Intended audience: Basic; Adult; Teach; Supervision

19. Missing Parent, Misguided Policy: Minnesota's 260C.503 Statute and the Loss of Parental Rights

Tracy Reid, JD, 4th Judicial District, Minneapolis, MN

Elizabeth Griffin, MA, Griffin Counseling and Consulting, St. Louis Park, MN

Jon Brandt, MSW, Mapletree, Maplewood, MN

Michael Tepoorten,

In 2012, Minnesota became one of a few states in the country that requires counties to file petitions to terminate the parental rights of individuals convicted, or under certain circumstances, accused of certain predatory offenses. The law, Minnesota Statute 260C.503, Subd. 2(6), is applied to both adults and juveniles, and there is no limit under the law regarding the temporal proximity of the offense. This panel will discuss the impact of Minnesota's maltreatment findings in labeling persons as sex offenders, the requirement of petitions to terminate rights of persons convicted of offenses unrelated to parenting and the application of the law to juveniles.

Intended audience: Advanced; All ages; Teach; Other

20. Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing (EMDR) Therapy Within Sex Offender Treatment

Shelley Rorvick, MA, Duluth Institute, Duluth, MN

Participants will learn about EMDR and its uses within treatment for those convicted of sexual offenses. This includes identifying when a client benefits from EMDR therapy and how to prepare a client prior to transitioning into EMDR. This workshop will provide specific examples of how EMDR can be used to address dynamic risk factors as well as barriers within treatment. In addition, participants will be informed about overlapping research within these two fields.

Intended Audience: Basic; Adult; Teach; Clinical

Workshops #21 through #23 are on the next page.

Thursday, April 11, 2019 continued

21. Self-awareness in Sexual Offender Treatment

Ernest Marshall, MSW, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center, Mauston, WI

Leslie Barfknecht, MSW, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center, Mauston, WI

This workshop will explore the concept of self-awareness within the context of treatment for those convicted of sexual offenses. Therapist self-awareness while providing therapy for those convicted of sexual offenses is a key component in helping facilitate change in others and operationalizes the common factors of effective psychotherapy. Increasing self-awareness in the other is the primary goal of any type of therapy, specifically for those convicted of sexual offenses. Both of these concepts will be explored through didactic discussion and experimental learning.

Intended audience: Advanced; All ages; Teach & Practice skills; Clinical

22. Understanding the Sexual Psychology of Convicted Sexual Offenders, the Crisis of Masculinity, Leading to the Identification of Reasonable Treatment Targets

Greg Giles, MA, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center, Mauston, WI

This workshop will examine the psychological constructs of offense supportive attitudes and sexual interest profiles that contribute to sexual offending and consider the current backlash against toxic masculinity, while identifying treatment targets to foster success for those convicted of sexual offenses. A variety of societal and technological changes that pose life interfering factors for this population will be introduced, with a focus on how to help individuals build healthy lives, despite an unwelcoming community environment.

Intended audience: Basic; Adult; Teach; Clinical & Re-entry

23. Treating Gender Dysphoria

Rosemary Munns, PsyD, University of Minnesota Center for Sexual Health, Minneapolis, MN

The World Professional Association for Transgender Health has outlined clinical standards of care for the treatment of Transsexual, Transgender and Gender Non-conforming people. These standards are used as a guideline for providing medical and mental health care to these populations. This presentation will briefly outline how these standards are applied in community settings. This will include information on the informed consent model. The barriers to applying these guidelines in correctional or other secure settings will be discussed.

Intended audience: Basic; Adult; Teach; Clinical

24. The Wisdom of Psychopathy – How Psychopathy Traits Can Become Strengths, Not Weaknesses

Rebekah Jaspersen, MSW, Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center, Mauston, WI

Historically, psychopathy traits have been seen as barriers or deficits. In this workshop, we will discuss how they can be turned into strengths and how our clients can use them "for good." The session will be based off of a group curriculum that is currently being utilized at Sand Ridge Secure Treatment Center with patients. Part of the curriculum is based off of the book, The Wisdom of Psychopaths: What Saints, Spies and Serial Killers Can Teach Us About Success. Individuals will learn the overall structure of the group, how to incorporate it into treatment, as well as ways to look at the traits of psychopathy in a different way.

Intended audience: Basic; Adult; Teach & Practice skills; Clinical

25. Treatment Needs and Responsivity Factors when Working with Severely Mentally Ill Sexual Offenders

Amy Farmer, PsyD, Minnesota Sex Offender Program, Moose Lake, MN

Individuals with severe, persistent mental illness who have also engaged in illegal sexually abusive behaviors are a complex and diverse group. Although research suggests that there is a higher prevalence of severe mental illness within those who sexual abuse than the general offender population, they are still often underrepresented within the literature. Given the compound nature of unique needs and challenges which this subpopulation presents, it is important to examine various ways to accommodate their individual treatment needs. Therefore, this presentation reviews the current research surrounding severely mentally ill individuals who sexually offend while examining their unique needs, challenges, and responsivity factors.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach; Clinical

26. Technology, Supervision, and Digital Investigations

Ryan Ruzich, BA, Minnesota Department of Corrections, St. Paul, MN

Kelsey Palm, BA, Minnesota Department of Corrections, St. Paul, MN

Technology has now become just as much of a part of probation and parole supervision as other standard conditions. This presentation will discuss some best practices in approaching monitoring of client's internet access as well as tools and techniques that can help investigate violations and promote client's safe use and access of the internet.

Intended audience: Basic; Adult; Teach; Supervision

This presentation serves as a continuation to the Risk Assessment for the Non-assessor Pre-conference Workshop. It primarily will focus on the application of results derived from actuarial (e.g., the Static-99R, the MnSOST-3.1.2), dynamic (e.g., Stable 2007, Acute 2007), and structured professional judgment (e.g., HCR-20, V3; SVR-20, V2) tools to treatment and supervision, particularly within a Risk-Needs-Responsivity framework. This workshop summarizes the relevant research regarding RNR principles specific to a high-risk population. It also provides approaches for facilitating a high-risk group, as well as a description of valuable facilitator characteristics that will prove useful with this challenging population.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach & Practice skills; Clinical

31. Why Does It Matter?

Traci Thomas-Card, MA, Standpoint, Minneapolis, MN

Kathryn Lockie, MA, Minnesota Sex Offender Program, St. Paul, MN

We all know that there are non-profit community-based victim advocates and sex-offense specific treatment providers, but why is it so important that we understand each other and work together? This workshop will begin by identifying the common goals of non-profit community-based victim advocates and sex-offense specific treatment providers. Non-profit community-based victim advocates and sex-offense specific treatment providers will develop a greater understanding of the work and role of their counterparts. Emphasis will be placed on how this understanding helps increase the victim-centered principle within services provided.

A Survivor's Perspective: The Demand for Buying Sex

Marian Hatcher, BS, Cook County Sheriff's Office of Public Policy, Chicago, IL

Seen through the eyes of a survivor, this keynote will provide discourse on the driving force behind the business of commercial sexual exploitation "demand." The commercial sex industry is based on a business model: buyer, seller, and manager. The industry thrives because there is a demand for sex and men who are willing to pay for it. The women and girls involved in prostitution, who are trafficked more than 80% of the time, are there mainly because of lack and loss. While this vulnerability is exploited by the buyer and the manager or pimp/trafficker, this is a demand driven business model. "NO Buyers, NO Business."

10:00 – 10:30 a.m. Networking/Break

10:30 a.m. – Noon Workshops – Select one workshop to attend from #32 through #38.

32. Addressing the Unacceptable Criminalization of Adult Exploitation

Marian Hatcher, BS, Cook County Sheriff's Office of Public Policy, Chicago, IL

The United States has made strides in addressing the exploitation and sale of our children. While not perfect, it is children who have the attention of the Federal Government. This is gaining ground amongst the states. There remains, however, a dangerous and unfair lag in connecting the dots for those who either reach their 18th birthday while exploited, or those who entered the sex trade as an adult. This session will address the "Structural Violence" that allows this disparity and revisit the basic tenants of the "United Nations Declaration of Human Rights" and the "Palermo Protocols" which clearly and vehemently mute this violation of adult human rights.

Intended audience: Advanced; All ages; Teach; Research & Re-entry

33. Monitoring of Offender Technology by Mental Health, Housing, and Supervision Professionals: Methods and Techniques for 2019

Dan Bick, BA, Cyber and Physical Security Consulting and Training, Plymouth, MN

This presentation will present the fundamentals of the capabilities of cell phone and storage devices used by those who have sexually offended and are now under supervision, their capabilities, and how they are used for non-compliance, violations, or criminal activities by some of these individuals. Proven methods for monitoring and controlling these devices will then be presented. These methods can be used by mental health, transitional housing, or supervision professionals and can provide a level of control but do not require forensic equipment knowledge or cost. Elements for the development of a program will be shown which can meet specific use cases of monitoring in larger organizations. You will gain the practical, next day applicable knowledge which you can use without non-relevant technical information or case descriptions.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach; Clinical & Supervision

34. Scientific Support for Treatment

Gene Abel, MD, Abel Screening, Inc., Atlanta, GA

Converging scientific studies indicate that inappropriate sexual interest is the best predictor of recidivism, and that other anticipated factors were not predictive of recidivism. Results of treatment that mainly focused to reduce deviant interest showed three groups of clients; the first group responded exceedingly well, a second group responded fairly well and the third group responded poorly to cognitive behavioral treatment and needed further intervention.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach, Practice skills & Present original research; Clinical, Research & Supervision

35. A Rough Journey Worth Risking: Counter-transference in Clinical Supervision: Best Paths to Clarify Your Client's Treatment Needs

Nicole Vaineo, MSW, Minnesota Sex Offender Program, Moose Lake, MN

Kathryn Schesso, MA, Minnesota Sex Offender Program, Moose Lake, MN

This presentation looks at transference and counter-transference as a parallel process between client and clinician and clinician and supervisor. Using various theoretical lenses from which to understand this process, suggestions and discussions are shared and encouraged in using the phenomenon of counter-transference in clinical supervision.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach & Practice skills; Clinical & Supervision

Thomas Brewer, PsyD, Pacific Northwest Recovery Institute, LLC, Portland, OR
Kevin McGovern, PhD, McGovern & Associates, Portland, OR

The presenters will outline the results of their research, surveying men who have committed child pornography offenses. They will present the findings which include reasons given by those who have committed child pornography offenses for accessing Child Pornography (CP), sexual and emotional explanations for continuing CP use, and other relevant information such as admission of contact offenses, time viewing pornography before accessing CP, age of first sexual experience and more. The presenters will offer thoughts about how these results can guide treatment, research, and ultimately prevention efforts with this population.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach & Present original research; Clinical & Research

37. Making a Difference: Informing and Influencing the Legislative Process

Elizabeth Griffin, MA, Griffin Counseling and Consulting, St. Louis Park, MN
Jannine Hebert, MA, Minnesota Sex Offender Program, St. Paul, MN

Policy and laws regarding individuals who have committed sexual offenses are often reactive and driven by emotion rather than research and evidence-based practices. This workshop will assist participants in understanding the structure and process of the legislature and discuss how MnATSA and our members can influence legislators and the legislative process by creating relationships with and providing evidence-based research and information regarding sexual offense behaviors to our Representatives and Senators.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach; Other

38. The Impact and Use of ACEs (Adverse Childhood Experiences Study) with Adolescents who have Sexually Harmed Others

Michelle Schmid-Egleston, MA, Minnesota Department of Corrections, Red Wing, MN
Angela Schaefer, MA, Minnesota Department of Corrections, Red Wing, MN

This training will focus on how childhood experiences, both positive and negative, have a tremendous impact on future violence victimization and perpetration, and lifelong health and opportunity. The training will specifically explore how ACEs impact adolescents (males) who sexually and physically harm others. ACEs have been linked to risky health behaviors, chronic health conditions, low life potential, and early death. Research indicates that as the number of ACEs increase, so does the risk for these outcomes.

Intended audience: Basic; Adolescent; Teach; Clinical & Research

39. Think Like a Psychopath, Act Like a Saint: Understanding and Responding to Psychopaths

David Swenson, PhD, College of St. Scholastica, Duluth, MN
Gerald Henkel-Johnson, PsyD, College of St. Scholastica, Duluth, MN

Psychopathic individuals who have offended offer a real challenge to therapists and correctional officers. Their glib, arrogant, and manipulative styles along with lack of empathy and remorse make them difficult to manage and contribute to practitioner burnout. This program will describe psychopathic behaviors, how they can be managed more effectively, the impact on therapists and treatment culture, and recommendations for resiliency.

Intended audience: Advanced; Adult; Teach; Supervision

40. Maintaining the Racial Order

Kymberleigh Wilhelmy, MA, Alpha Human Services, Minneapolis, MN

Minnesota is one of the most liberal states in the union and ranks second place for the worst racial disparities in the United States. This suggests Minnesotans want equality for some but continue to fall short in the areas of education, housing, employment, health care, mental health care, and the criminal justice system for others. This workshop will attempt to address the curious enigma of racial disparities in a world where racism is said to be a thing of the past. How racism takes place and why it takes place will be the central focus.

42. Residency Restrictions: An Update on the Solution in Search of a Problem

Brian Collins, MS, Minnesota Department of Corrections, St. Cloud, MN

Residency restrictions continue to be a hot-button issue in Minnesota. Proponents believe these laws are important because they keep children safe and apart from offenders. However, a mountain of empirical evidence strongly suggests that residency restrictions have no effect on preventing sexual offending or mitigating sexual recidivism. This presentation provides an update on the ever-popular debate by examining the state of residency restrictions in Minnesota.

Intended audience: Basic; All ages; Teach; Supervision & Re-entry

43. Basics of Dissociation

Janet Schlegel, MA, Soul Work Counseling, Champlin, MN

Dissociation is very common and often goes undetected in the therapeutic setting. This workshop will cover the basics of what dissociation is, what creates it, and how a client with dissociation presents in their daily life. We will discuss symptoms along the spectrum and how to diagnose the Dissociative Disorders of the DSM 5. Training will also be provided on the DES – an instrument used to screen for dissociation.

Hotel and Transportation

The Minneapolis Marriott Northwest is located at the intersection of I-94 and Boone Avenue North in Brooklyn Park, MN. It is approximately 12 miles from downtown Minneapolis and 25 miles from the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport. Uber, Lyft, and various taxi services are available from the airport. Public transit options are also available at: www.metrotransit.org

All rooms are suites with a separate living room. The rate for guest suites is $140 per night (plus 10.275% tax) for single or double occupancy for conference participants who register by Tuesday, March 19, 2019. This rate applies only for April 7-14, 2019. There are a limited number of rooms available at this conference rate, and it is strongly recommended that you make your reservation early. Once that number of rooms is booked, the rate increases substantially.

Hotel Reservations

To book your hotel room, call toll-free 1-877-303-1681 or 763-536-8300 Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. Central Standard Time, and ask for “the room block under MnATSA” or online at

<https://tinyurl.com/Marriott-Hotel-MnATSA-2019>

Room type availability cannot be guaranteed.

1. Check-in will be available after 4:00 p.m. each day.
2. Check-out on your date of departure will be at or before 12:00 noon.
3. The room block and room rates are guaranteed until midnight on Tuesday, March 19, 2019, or until the number of contracted rooms is reached – whichever is sooner. The hotel will continue to accept reservations past the cut-off date based on availability, but at a substantially higher price.
4. Complimentary parking is available in the large parking lots.
5. There is a hotel policy of a 24-hour cancellation on all guestroom reservations. If canceled after this time, guests will be charged one-night room and tax.
6. INCIDENTAL HOLD AND DEBIT CARD USE: A $50.00 authorization for incidentals (times the number of days in reservation) will be asked for upon check-in. If a credit card is presented as the method of payment, the statement will show an authorization, not a charge – until the time of checkout. At the time of checkout, only the actual charges will show on the statement. If a debit card is presented as the method of payment, then the statement will show a hold of the room charge plus incidentals, times the number of nights stayed. Example for two days: $140.00 room rate, plus 10.275% tax, plus $50 (x) 2 days = $408.77. The issuing bank (not Marriott) will place a hold on the necessary funds to cover the total authorization. Any amount not used is released by the hotel immediately upon departure. The issuing bank may take up to five business days or longer to release any unused portion of the deposit.

Marriott Rewards Points: If you are a Marriott rewards member and reserve and pay for the room yourself, you can receive rewards points. You may also redeem points for your reservation. This is a category 3 hotel.
